THE new Axminster Carpets has increased staffing levels by about 50 per cent since formed in April this year.

To cap it off, the new company has passed a test to retain the Royal Warrant of Appointment awarded to the old company.

Axminster Carpets went into administration in March, with the loss of 200 jobs at the Axminster site, and a further 100 at Buckfastleigh.

But Axminster Carpets 2013 Ltd started trading in April, with a 100-strong workforce in Axminster.

Less than half a year later, the workforce figure has climbed to 152.

MD Josh Dutfield confirmed on Monday morning to Pulman's View that approximately 50 new members of staff had joined the company across all departments during the last few months.

He said: "These new roles have been created as a result of recent business growth and an increase in orders. Axminster Carpets is invest-factory staff to handle the new business that has been generated since the formation of the new Axminster Carpets business.

"We have been focused on driving new orders into the business over the last few months both in the consumer and contract sectors and this has led to the creation of new roles.

"We're very focused on underpinning the stability of the business going into the future and our success very much depends on recruiting a team of talented people for every area of the business and we are delighted to have been able to increase our work force over the last few months demonstrating that we're on track for our growth plans."

A Royal Warrant of Appointment is a mark of recognition of those who have supplied goods or services to the Households of HM The Queen, HRH The Duke of Edinburgh or HRH The Prince of Wales.

Mr Dutfield said: "Axminster Carpets has a long history of supplying

Quotes of the week...

“FORGET the dormice and bats for a minute, the question is do we want 170 houses on that wonderful piece of land? To put these houses on that piece of land is totally and utterly irresponsible, it will just spoil Seaton and the approach to Seaton, and will affect Axmouth and the wetlands. If this goes through, it will open up other areas for development”

The Mayor of Colyford and Colyton, parish councillor Howard West, speaking at a public meeting in Colyford after the setting up of an action group to oppose the green wedge development between Seaton and Colyford which is going to appeal.

“WE DON'T want to waste time chasing people we don't really need to chase. We'd rather reach an agreement with residents who want to pay on a different date - and will stick to that date. Then we can concentrate our energy on taking prompt action in cases where householders are either genuinely struggling to pay and need help, or are stubbornly refusing to pay and need chasing up”

Councillor David Cox, EDDC's Cabinet member for Finance, speaking about a new instalment plan to help East Devon residents pay their council tax.

This week's local news in numbers

48 THE number of new employees taken on by the new Axminster Carpets 2013 Ltd, boosting total staffing numbers to 152.

£25,000 THE amount raised by Axminster mother Debbie Humblestone to bring a ground-breaking mental health project to the Axminster Young People's Centre.

860 THE record-breaking number of people who attended this year's August Bank Holiday Fete at the village of Hawkchurch.

53 THE number of members of Ottery St Mary Scout Group, including adult leaders, who took part in a 10-day tour of Europe which included a visit to First World War graves.

Promotion double for Carpetmen

ALREADY-PROMOTED Axminster 1st XI rounded off an excellent campaign with a disappointing 63-run reverse in a low-scoring encounter at Dartington & Totnes on Saturday.

Robbie Prior took 3 for 25 as the hosts were held to 141 for 9.

But this proved to be more than enough as the 10-man Carpetmen were shot out for just 78 with nobody reaching 25.

Elsewhere, Axminster 2nds completed a promotion double for the club by beating neighbours Up-lyme & Lyme Regis 2nds by 43 runs at Cloakham Lawns.

Mark Enticott clipped an unbeaten 46 as Axminster posted 204 for 6 and then dismissed the visitors for 161 (D.Larcombe 4-8, D.Fuzzard 5-25).

Defeat for the Tigers and the Vikings

AXMINSTER Town hopes of a third successive South east Peninsula League Division One (west) were ultimately dashed by some slack defending on the half-hour of Saturday's match with Teignmouth Town.

All appeared to be going to plan for The Tigers after Dan Baily had given them the lead in the 19th minute with his fifth goal of the season.

But a lack of concentration in the home back line saw the visitors capitalise twice in the space of 90 seconds and Ax were left pointless despite enjoying large periods of domination.

Sidmouth Town went down 4-0 at home to Newton Abbot Spurs.

50 new jobs at Carpet factory

THE new Axminster Carpets has increased staffing levels by about 50 per cent since formed in April this year.

To cap it off, the new company has passed a test to retain the Royal Warrant of Appointment awarded to the old company.

Axminster Carpets went into administration in March, with the loss of 200 jobs at the Axminster site, and a further 100 at Buckfastleigh.

Axminster Carpets is investing in a new field-based sales force across the UK, an expanded customer service team as well as new factory staff to handle the new business that has been generated since the formation of the new Axminster Carpets business.

A Royal Warrant of Appointment is a mark of recognition of those who have supplied goods or services to the Households of HM The Queen, HRH The Duke of Edinburgh or HRH The Prince of Wales.

Mr Dutfield said: "Axminster Carpets has a long history of supplying high quality, luxurious carpets to the Royal Household and we are proud that this will continue as the company moves forward.

"As part of our long-term commitment to Axminster Carpets' Royal Warrant of Appointment, the company is investing further in our customer service team, ensuring delivery of the highest standards of response from knowledgeable people who are passionate about the Axminster brand.

"We're also developing new innovative designs and exciting product ranges to be unveiled later this year."

From the editor's chair Carnival time here again

HOW quickly it comes round – the carnival season that is. As always, Seaton opened the East Devon circuit on Saturday, to be followed by Colyton on Saturday, September 14th and Axminster on the 21st. Then I think there's a carnival somewhere in Devon right up to Christmas. For those who attend them all, it's one major commitment but they bring enjoyment to many thousands along the way and, of course, help to raise considerable sums in the process.

What was it Alan Price sang in 1968? "Don't Stop The Carnival". Let's hope they never do.

I don't think that will ever happen, particularly in East Devon, but these are much more difficult days for carnival clubs and it was interesting to speak to John Jeffery, who has been around carnivals all his life, at Seaton on Saturday evening.

John now looks after the safety factors on the East Devon circuit, making sure the tableaux conform to the regulations and have the necessary insurances, etc, absolutely essential in the current compensation-orientated culture we now live in.

Long gone are the days when you could knock up a float, put on a fancy costume and take a crate of beer on board to have a bit of fun around the route. The big boys now take it very seriously indeed and many hundreds of pounds are invested in their hugely impressive tableaux.

John can see the day when carnivals may have to revert back to the smaller, less spectacular floats, but having said that the Seaton parade on Saturday evening attracted a number of creations that made the crowd gasp.

I never cease to be amazed by the sheer creativity that goes into the making of such floats and the energy that the participants put into their various routines. They must be exhausted by the end of the route and totally cream-cracked by Christmas.

The Seaton carnival procession attracted a huge crowd who were in a good spirit, cheering and clapping the various entries, no matter how small. It's this mixture of quaint and stunning that makes carnival such a great night out for the spectators.

The Seaton Carnival Committee, blessed with fine weather throughout the week, clearly put a huge amount of effort into organising their week of fun. Hopefully the collecting tins were brimming over after Saturday's procession and the financial result will have been worth all their hard work.

Well done to the Seaton crew and good luck to all the volunteers who will be working so hard over the coming weeks to make the carnivals in Coltons, Axminster, Sidoma, Honiton and Newton Poppleford equally as successful.

COLYTON/SEATON Official group to fight green wedge

OBJECTORS of plans to develop the green wedge between Colyford and Seaton have formed an official group and employed a planning consultant to represent them at the upcoming appeal hearing.

Residents objecting to plans for 170 homes, light industrial area, two football pitches with pavilion, multi-use games area and spine road on the green wedge will now form part of the Seaton and Colyford Green Wedge Community Action Group. The group will be represented by consultant Anthony Padfield, from Gloucestershire, at the appeal hearing in December when East Devon District Council's decision to reject the plans will come under question by the applicant, Seaton Park (Devon) Ltd.

The formation of the new group was discussed at a Seaton Town Council planning committee meeting on Tuesday, attended by about 60 residents, when councillors agreed they would like to join, and at a public meeting in Colyford attended by about 85 people.

The Mayor of Colyford and Colyton parish councillor Howard West explained that Mr Padfield would put forward the group's main points of objection to the government-employed planning inspector, who is overseeing the appeal, by September 11th, the deadline for all comments on the application.

He would then work for the group in the weeks running up to the three-day appeal hearing, which will be held in December in Colyford.

Mr West said that Mr Padfield's services were costing £650 a day plus VAT and that donations from the local community had so far funded this. Any surplus after the appeal hearing would be split pro-rata between those who had donated.

Fundraisers are also being held, including a 50-50 auction at Colyford Memorial Hall, with those donating items receiving 50 per cent of the profits, and a coffee morning at Harepath Farm Bed & Breakfast.

Mr Padfield has written to the planning inspector invoking Rule Six, which means that the action group will be the third party at the hearing, after the applicant and East Devon District Council, with the same rights to speak.

Mr West reported that the developers had now submitted a second, similar application for the same piece of land while the appeal was being considered.

The new proposal is still for 170 houses but on a smaller scale and smaller piece of land, a reduced light industrial estate and two football pitches but with no pavilion or other facilities.

As the football facilities had now been scrapped, Paul Grint, chairman of Seaton Town Football Club, which was originally hoping to move to the site, opposed the new plans.

SEATON Town launches an artisan market

SEATON has welcomed a new artisan market featuring locally sourced, home crafted, arts and crafts from Devon, Dorset and Somerset.

The market, launched in Windsor Gardens on Saturday morning, will also be held Saturday August 31st, September 7th, September 21st and October 5th.

A large crowd gathered for the opening with the first market supported around 20 carefully selected stallholders offering high quality goods for sale.

The new market has been put in place as part of a number of new initiatives that Seaton Town Council and Seaton Town Development Team have been working on to enliven the town's high street, increase activity and footfall in the town and encouraging more people to visit.

The project has been made possible by funding received from the Department for Communities and Local Government's Town Team fund.

The artisan market was opened by the Mayor of Seaton, Councillor Gaynor Sedgwick, who said she was "delighted" that the market was up and running and she was sure it would increase the footfall in the town and go from strength to strength.

EAST DEVON

New plan to help council taxpayers

EAST Devon District Council (EDDC) hopes that added flexibility will stop council tax payers from falling into arrears.

Under a new installment plan, householders can move their payment to a later date if it will make things easier for them.

But reminders will be sent sooner when someone defaults.

Councillor David Cox, EDDC's Cabinet member for Finance, explained: "We don't want to waste time chasing people we don't really need to chase.

"We'd rather reach an agreement with residents who want to pay on a different date – and will stick to that date.

"Then we can concentrate our energy on taking prompt action in cases where householders are either genuinely struggling to pay and need help, or are stubbornly refusing to pay and need chasing up."

To those struggling to pay, an EDDC spokesperson said: "Please contact EDDC now. The earlier you call the better.

"We can check if you qualify for a discount, agree a different payment plan with you or put you in touch with someone who can offer independent and confidential help at no charge.

"This can include maximising your income, help with budgeting and filling in forms."

Anyone who has not paid the instalment for September 1st can expect to get a reminder through the post very soon.

The spokesperson added: "Collection staff at EDDC are aware that many people are struggling with their bills and hope that by reminding everyone early, they can identify any problems – and possible solutions – sooner.

"The new initiative is designed to allow EDDC to target its resources more effectively so that its staff can identify and help people who are in danger of falling behind with their payments.

"EDDC has already been working hard to contact customers affected by the Welfare Reform changes."

"You can ring 01395 517446, visit the council offices, email revenues@eastdevon.gov.uk or write to us at: Council Offices, Knowle, Sidmouth, EX10 8HL."

HAWKCHURCH

Record village fete

THIS year's Hawkchurch Fete celebrations saw a bumper week packed full of family events culminate with record numbers flooding through the gates for the main event on Bank Holiday Monday.

All events taking place during the week, including a car treasure hunt, beetle drive, whist drive, bingo and quiz night, were well attended.

And organisers were blessed with perfect weather on Monday afternoon for the fete, which attracted a record crowd of more than 860 people and stallholders reporting good sales.

■ OFF WITH A HUG: Friends and family see Terence off, his mother Jackie giving him a hug.

Terence leaves for China – on his bike!

TERENCE Langdon's long bicycle slog to China started just after 9.15am on Tuesday of last week.

The 27-year-old is cycling from Axminster to China – with an estimated time of arrival in February 2015.

A sending off party saw him off outside his Old North Street home.

When asked if she had tried to talk him out of it, his mother Jackie said: "No, no. As long as he rings me once in a while. He is a big boy now."

Axminster resident Terryn Sparkes was also part of the sending off party.

He will fly to Turkey in a few months to cycle with Terence along the Turkish coast for about three weeks.

Mr Sparkes said: "We'll meet in Istanbul is the loose plan.

"He'll be in touch and let me know when it is time to go."

Apart from the challenge itself, Terence is also looking to raise money for WaterAid.

A Snake's Tale/Tail

Twice my friend Jean ringing the doorbell, but when I answered the door, I saw she wasn't well "Crikey, love, what's wrong? - what's the matter?" "There's a snake in my conservatory-it's an Adder!" "An Adder" says I "An Adder" says she

For a second or three, I stare at her vacantly (I know to be frightened like that-not nice... I'm like that with Woodlice)

Locking our own pets safely indoors, I rush with Jean to her home - next door.

Ensuring 'Alan the Adder' was securely in the conservatory. We peered through the glass cautiously, There he was! - Under the radiator No doubt contemplating where to go later Taking off my flips, didn't want to dirty Jeans settee, creeping into the conservatory, onto the settee I asked Jean to pass me a stick.

With a little prodding 'Alan' soon became alert, his attention I tried to divert, but instead he curled 'round the end of the stick!! Earlier I'd spotted a small box by the side of a chair so, I wriggled the stick, and dropped him in there. "Quick Jean" I said as he flipped and slid- "Give me something to hold down the lid" putting her arm cautiously in Jean passed me her biscuit tin (biscuits still in!)

Both of us dead chuffed he's ensnared, cheering, lifting the box in the air when Jean shrieks. "In the back of the box, Jaq, there's a big hole!" Like a flash - she chucked me a kitchen roll which was hastily stuffed in the aforementioned hole.

Just then, the phone rang, it was the snake man from whom Jean had rang, he wasn't in, They said he would call back, when he was home from the gym.

He was told it was all taken care of now, But Jean said "thank you for your concern anyhow. He went rather quiet when she told him what we had done. Probably thought we'd been a bit dumb?

By this time, hubby had come home for his tea said- we had taken the situation "too lightly"

So, like the three musketeers, Alan (boxed) held at arms length, we set off to find him a new residence. Away from the well known trails we put the box down, opened it, stood well away, watched him slither quickly away. And that was the end of 'Alan the Adder's' tail/tale.

P.S Jean never did eat those biscuits!

Groundbreaking mental health project set up by local mother

A GROUNDBREAKING mental health project for youngsters and their parents has become a reality thanks to the efforts of an Axminster mother.

Although based in Axminster, Debbie Humberstone's initiative reaches out to those affected in East Devon, West Devon and South Somerset.

Debbie first got involved with mental health issues among the young when her then 16-year-old daughter

By Anders Larsson

suffered problems and was admitted to an in-patient unit.

Formally named The Project, it will help young people (aged 12 to 24) and their parents and carers by providing "mutual support, new friendships and fresh ways of handling emotional difficulties".

Two age groups (12-16 and 17-24) will meet on alternate weeks for two-hour sessions.

Art, cooking, music and drama activities, along with discussions, support and relaxation will be led by a qualified mental health worker, a youth leader and a team of volunteers.

The emphasis will be on supporting young people's emotional and mental health, as well as building self-esteem and confidence in a fun, friendly and non-judgemental environment.

A monthly support group for parents and carers will be run separately.

Debbie said: "There's nothing exactly like The Project for young people nationally, yet statistics show that three young people in every class in every school across the country have a diagnosable mental health problem."

She has raised £25,000 to bring The Project to Axminster's Young Peoples' Centre where mayor Jeremy Walden will be guest of honour for the formal opening on Thursday September 5th between 4.30 pm and 8pm.

Debbie added: "Mental health issues are becoming increasingly common."

"Offering support, and investing time and effort in young people at this level is worthwhile if it stops one person developing long-term mental health problems. The Project will provide that much needed support."

"It is important for people to feel comfortable talking about and sharing their concerns about their mental and emotional wellbeing, and our launch is a chance for local people to find out more by dropping in for refreshments, to meet the team and maybe join in an activity."

Those unable to attend the event can find out more by contacting Debbie on 01297 35211, 07977 836380 or accessing <https://www.facebook.com/theprojectYP>

Vunteer training for new visiting scheme

AXE Valley Visiting Scheme has announced a training day for volunteers.

The plan is to provide a volunteer visiting service to people aged 60-plus who live in their own homes or in residential care homes, and in receipt of health and social care services.

Project co-ordinator Rachel Ackerman said: "The aim is to alleviate social isolation and improve the health and well-being of people who may be feeling out of touch, lonely and isolated for a variety of reasons such as ill health, bereavement, life changes, or a lack of family and friends nearby."

"Volunteers are not asked to do any personal care, domestic or medical tasks. It really is all about social contact."

The session will run from 10am to 2pm on Tuesday, September 10th in the Axminster United Reformed Church hall.

To find out more or to book a place at the training session, contact Rachel Ackerman (for Seaton and district) at rachel.ackerman@edvsa.org.uk or on 01404 549045.

For Axminster and district, contact Gill Amos at gill.amos@edvsa.org.uk or on 01404 549045.

The project is run by East Devon Volunteer Support Agency and funded by Making it Local, a locally managed grants scheme in the Blackdown Hills and East Devon AONB areas.

■ PROUD AS PUNCH: Rotarian John Brennan with Matt Morbey, Matt Chenery and

■ FIRST CLASS POST: Challengers joined Rotary Club of Axminster president Ian Crawford and library supervisor Sarah Jones to sort the postcards

Reading reminder from the library

TWO-HUNDRED Axminster children have had a postcard through their letter box as a reminder to keep up a reading challenge.

As previously reported, Axminster Library takes part in the national Summer Reading Challenge but has gone a step further in creating postcards to remind children to keep reading.

Harry Chantry, aged 8, said: "It's my first ever postcard."

"It's awesome. I have nearly finished the challenge, and I liked the Creepy House treasure hunt round the library."

Library supervisor Sarah Jones said: "We have 200 children who have started the reading challenge this summer."

"We have set ourselves our own challenge of getting at least half, so 100 children, to actually finish."

"We are very grateful to the Rotary Club of Axminster for funding the postcard initiative."

"And the best thing is we have had so many children coming in to the library say how thrilled they have been to get their own post."

Flat rescue

A MAN was rescued from a flat on fire in the early hours of Monday, August 19th in Seaton.

The man suffered from smoke inhalation and was given oxygen at the scene by firefighters.

Firefighters were called to a property in Queen Street at about 12:15am, and a spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "One fire appliance from Seaton and one fire appliance from Colyton attended.

"Fire crews confirmed a small fire within a first floor flat. One adult male was rescued from the property by fire crews.

"The fire was extinguished using two breathing apparatus wearers, one hose reel jet and a thermal image camera to check for hot spots.

"Fire crews rendered oxygen therapy to the casualty, who was suffering from smoke inhalation, until the arrival of ambulance. The cause of the fire is still under investigation by the fire service and police."

The busy annual event welcomed many through the doors of Beer Sailing Club who were thanked by the group's volunteers for helping to raise a total of £590 for Cancer Research UK.

Alongside the main event, the group were joined by area volunteer manager, Dawn Harrison, who came along especially to award two members with long service awards for more than 30 years of loyal support.

On receiving her award, Muriel said: "I am very pleased to get this award, and it has been a lovely surprise, especially as I am one of many who volunteer to support Cancer Research UK.

"It is a pity that Eve wasn't alongside me when we received our awards as really, we started this together, but I am pleased that we have reached this milestone together.

"I have enjoyed my time as a Cancer Research supporter very much and have made many friends over the years. Thank you to all who have supported me."

THIS year's Hawkchurch Fete celebrations saw a bumper week packed full of family events culminate with record numbers flooding through the gates for the main event on Bank Holiday Monday.

All events taking place during the week, including a car treasure hunt, beetle drive, whist drive, bingo and quiz night, were well attended.

And organisers were blessed with perfect weather on Monday afternoon for the fete, which attracted a record crowd of more than 860 people and stallholders reporting good sales.

Entertainment during the afternoon included the Honeysuckle Dog Agility Team, Xtreme Falconry display, The Axminster Karisma Majorettes, children's entertainer and music from the Bucky Don'ts Ukulele Band from Bridport.

The grand raffle, raising money for Devon Air Ambulance and Devon Free-wheelers, offered a first prize of £150, which went to Mr Creed, from Broadoak, and the second prize of £75 went to Mr A Ransford.

Organisers are still counting the money raised from the event, but Treasurer David Westlake is confident that this year's total will be more than £3,000, with donations going to village causes.

On behalf of the committee, secretary Christine Bright said: "I would like to say a huge thank you to all of our sponsors, without which it would not be possible for the fete to achieve those sums of money enabling the committee to assist, not only the Devon based charities, but village organisations too."

"A thank you also to all those who helped to organise the week's events and provide the much needed 'manpower' which made the fete possible."

Also taking place during the fete week was the village dog show. This is the 19th year the dog show has been held and organiser Christine Bright was pleased to report a record entry of 61 dogs.

The winners of the trophies were: Best in Show (Pedigree section) – Lalya owned by E Bradley; and Reserve Best in show (Pedigree section) – Boudica owned by Mrs Shani Lunnon.

Best in Show (Family section) – Molly owned by Tegan and Ellie Hooper; and Reserve Best in show (Family section) – Bella owned by Allie Clayton.

Mayor visits Rotary Club

MAYOR of Axminster, Councillor Jeremy Walden, was the special guest at the town's Rotary Club weekly luncheon meeting on Friday, August 23rd.

Invited to address the members, the mayor outlined what he felt the role of mayor was in Axminster, that he represented the town on formal occasions, acted as a pressure point with very little "power" and tried to act in a non-political way.

Explaining that, with 31 years' residency in the town and 15 years of that as a councillor, he had gained some knowledge of the challenges facing the area, that he was in favour of expanding the town in a sympathetic way and that it was not always possible to solve all the problems all of the time.

Councillor Walden then invited Rotary members to ask questions and fielded such difficult subjects as town development, unemployment, eyesores in the town and job creation.

He was warmly thanked by Rotarian Martin King.

The mayor joined in the business parts of the meeting, which included a discussion on nominations for the Pride of Axminster Awards, charity collections and social activities of the club.

■ AXMINSTER Rotary Club president Ian Crawford and fellow Rotarians Malcolm Reynolds and Bill Coltham, with their dogs Chess, Bertie and Willow, undertook a fundraising charity walk for the Children's Hospice on Sunday, August 11th.

Starting at Exeter Quays they walked nine-kilometre route along the river banks in glorious sunshine, returning some two hours later.

Cold drinks for the dogs and ice creams for the owners were the necessary order of the day at the end. Over £500 was collected for the hospice.

Remembering the forgotten

■ A DAMNED GOOD READ: John Hollands, who lives in Buckereil, pictured with one of his books about the horrors of the Korean war

ON the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month of every year, the nation vows "We will remember them".

But the nation, and how it highlights Remembrance Day in its media, is vowing through its hat.

When we stand to attention and rightly reflect on the hideous wars of the last century, we think of the two world wars, the Falklands War and the pointless losses of the Northern Ireland conflict, Iraq and Afghanistan.

But who, if we're honest, reflects in those minutes of silence on The Korean War? Who even knows when The Korean War was or has any idea of what a huge war it was?

Here's a bit of perspective: The Falklands War, which we Brits like to celebrate at its anniversaries with street-party enthusiasm and nationalistic zeal, cost the lives of 907 people.

The Korean War of 1950-53 cost more than three million lives on all sides.

Those sides were such that this was in effect a third world war. On the one side were the world's principal nations of Communism, North Korea, China and, temporarily, Russia, and on the other, troops from 16 Western nations backed by aid and equipment supplied by another 41 countries of the free world.

How is it possible on Remembrance Day, or any day, to forget a war that was involved sixty nations?

In a picturesque village in East Devon one man is making it the purpose of the rest of his life to do something about our national amnesia and ignorance.

"My passion nowadays is to scrub out this awful tag of 'The Forgotten War' and make it into a war to remember," said John Hollands as he sipped shandy in a pub near his home at Buckereil.

His arms in this fight are two remarkable, mind-opening books about what it was like to serve and kill in Korea; a brilliant novel, The Dead The Dying And The Damned and its even more shocking companion, his memoirs Heroes Of The Hook.

It is the second time that John has fought the anti-war cause with The Dead The Dying And The Damned. The book was first published by Cassell in 1956; it sold more than three million copies, making the book that is recognised as the finest novel of the Korean War a massive best-seller.

Now, 60 years on, John is self-publishing both the novel and, for the first time, Heroes Of The Hook.

"The 60th anniversary of the end of the war in Korea is the last chance I'll get; by the time we get to the 70th, I'll be dead-and-gone," said John, now in his 80s.

John Hollands was almost very much dead-and-gone very often in Korea. He and his platoon were buried when shell-fire crushed and caved-in their dug outs, they were regularly involved in firefights in a conflict which was essentially the first trench war since the time of The Somme and in gruesome hand-to-hand fighting he stabbed to death five men.

It is key to understanding the horror which left him – unknowingly – with post traumatic stress to know that at the time of this slaughter John was a volunteer Second Lieutenant, aged 19 and younger than most of the youth who are currently facing their second year at university.

Sixty years on, he admits now that had he known what war in Korea would be like he would not have enlisted. Although he joined 12 Platoon of the 1st Battalion of The Duke Of Wellington's Regiment solely because he wanted to write a war novel, he was, he confesses, clueless of what lay ahead of him.

"I was a terribly-naïve school-boy when I joined up. I was not so much bullied into it but the bloke who recommended it, my careers master, had done so very much tongue in cheek, he had not expected me to do it. But frankly I was so naïve and stupid, and I mean that quite honestly. I had no conception at all as to what it was like, I hardly knew where Korea was."

But within months the Army had trained him to kill there. This is how he describes his first ambush of a Chinese scouting party: "The Chinese stood no chance. It was a massacre. They might just as well have been unarmed. Each one was taken out, just as planned. One or two at the front fired back, but to no effect. Those further behind couldn't fire on account of their comrades being directly in front of them. As their leaders fell to the ground, so the others were exposed before us, waiting to be flattened like targets popping up in a shooting gallery".

“I sank my bayonet into at least five Chinese. Looking back, I wonder how I did it, but I did, and without hesitation, animal-like in my eagerness. All the time I was yelling and screaming, just like everyone else’

More harrowing still is John's account of close-quarter fighting:

"I can recall few details of what happened. In hand-to-hand fighting men rarely do. They develop tunnel-vision and only see what confronts them directly. Everything is instinctive, spontaneous and utterly ruthless. The over-riding skill is to pick out the most vulnerable among the enemy, ones you can surprise, often men already struggling with one of your mates, with no compunction about striking from the rear, just go at them like a maniac and finish them off with a single blow or thrust, hoping to God that your mates are watching your back, ready to do the same for you.

"I know I sank my bayonet into at least five Chinese. Looking back, I wonder how I did it, but I did, and without hesitation, animal-like in my eagerness. All the time I was yelling and screaming, just like everyone else. Men were killed by any means available. One of the lads was using a spade, another a pick-axe, and a third his steel helmet, slashing the rim of it into the eyes of those confronting him before finishing them off with a knife."

Clinical Hypnotherapy Cognitive Behavioural Hypnotherapy

HELPING YOU TO TAKE CONTROL OF YOUR LIFE

Simple suggestions to help you understand and manage stress.

Stress can be experienced by any of us at any age. Children may experience stressful peer pressure, worry about exams, their body image, popularity. Adults often have work, family or relationship worries to contend with. Older people may stress about health, finances, their quality of life. Each age brings its own stresses and concerns. Hypnotherapy and CBH or Mindfulness can all help.

Let's look at some effective tips to help you manage stress:

Acknowledge that, at times, stress can be an effective motivator; it helps you perform at a higher level, get more done each day, and tap into unexpected resources. But a constant stressful state can cause issues with health, affect your quality of life and impact on your happiness and contentment. Hypnotherapy is an effective way to manage the different kinds of stress - the 'bad' stress that can become a draining, habitual pattern or response to situations and the 'good' stress that helps us to 'up' our game whenever required. Many people find that listing their worries or stresses helps them to manage their lives better as they itemise the things that are preying on their mind. You can add to the list as required, prioritise items, make notes, and cross out tasks as completed. Hypnotherapy can help reinforce the technique of moving worries and stresses from inside your head to outside where they can be dealt with systematically and effectively, one at a time. Congratulate yourself each day at what's been accomplished and relax knowing that any outstanding items won't be forgotten, just simply carried through to the following day. At home let others help even if the result is not up to your personal standards. Giving positive feedback and encouragement helps others feel included in the team, more responsible and happy to learn new skills. Some people struggle to delegate; they may feel guilt at not doing everything themselves. Hypnotherapy can help in recognising this pattern of behaviour, identify where it originated and then let it go. Delegating to staff at work encourages them to grow in confidence as they become more adept in their tasks. Your trust in them may even encourage them to offer suggestions or come up with new ideas of their own. Work on personal relationships by taking time to establish regular open and honest communications. Share conversations about your thoughts, feelings, experiences rather than just daily factual updates. Put dinner in the oven and enjoy going for an early evening walk or play a game together as a family. By doing this you set up a regular space to de-stress, improve your relationships and have relaxing time, chatter and maybe even exercise. Have quality personal time. It can be easy to put ourselves last on our list, but committing to regular time for yourself for the gym, to spend in your garden or enjoy an important hobby or interest makes all the difference to your stress levels, your mindset and your quality of life. Hypnotherapy can help you to feel more confident about saying what you need in a respectful, effective way. This positive approach often improves the dynamics of all your relationships. Having time for yourself, whether to spend alone or with others, is important in demonstrating that you and your personal interests are important. Personal time is another valid and effective way to help you manage stress.

If you need help in managing stress and anxiety fear or phobias and are not sure if hypnosis can help, give Michelle a call and find out more. Tel: 07761773563

heroes of the war in Korea

■ FROM PAGE 12

And there was worse endured by this British Army that we have shamefully forgotten. John's description of Korea is Kafkaesque, a bleak, grey-muddled hell that was so cold in winter that men froze in their dug-out lines just as generations before them did at Ypres.

"When they first sent British troops to Korea they took two battalions from Hong Kong, The Argyll and Southern Highlanders and The Middlesex Regiment. In the autumn of 1950 the Middlesex turned up in Korea in jungle green uniforms. Some blithering idiot in the Ministry of Defence knew so little about the absolute coldness that they were sent in jungle green. And of course, they froze to death," said John.

"We were treated like dirt, which was common in those days. We literally did get £1 a week when we joined up and the thing that amuses me most, and which infuriated the lads most, was when we did get to the front line and were directed to live in these holes in the ground which were full of hundreds of rats, we got one candle a week. There would be three blokes sharing a bunker, so you'd get three candles to last you a whole week.

"It was crazy, the whole thing was crazy. But the thing is that that generation, my generation, were so used to wartime conditions; rationing, no petrol, that we simply did as we were told. Nowadays, and it is probably a healthy thing, I don't think lads or women of a similar age would stand for it. You couldn't put a lad in a uniform and say 'Well here's ten quid a week', he'd say you're joking! And the rest of the population wouldn't stand for it, but in those days they did.

■ WE WILL REMEMBER THEM – a Korean War memorial

"My father and mother never murmured that you can't do this to our sons, nobody did. They just took it as our duty and that was it."

Perhaps few at home realised what was involved in such duty; the 'duty', for instance, to watch a comrade burn to death when one of the home-made space heaters constructed in the bunkers periodically exploded. John's description in Heroes Of The Hook of a bunker going up in flames is a vivid anti-war statement on its own.

"Then came a new type of cry from within. Not a shriek of pain, or one seeking help, not even one of fear; but a shriek of resignation to a horrible fate. A second or two later a man burst out of the bunker. He was ablaze from head to foot, his hair fizzing like the head of a newly-struck match. The circle of men outside parted instinctively and he dashed through them, heading down the trench. When he reached the gap in the trench he plunged down the reverse slope, not knowing what he was doing, just running in blind panic.

Smell of roasting flesh

"Men rushed after him. He began to slow down with every step, but his impetus kept him going, with parts of his clothing falling away. Before the others reached him he stumbled into the belt of barbed wire never the bottom of the slope. Then he lay there, motionless, still blazing, stretched across a single strand of barbed wire. Blankets, coats and other clothing were wrapped around him in an effort to extinguish the flames but they were too late. Already there was a smell of roasting flesh and he had ceased to cry out in protest.

"Apart from the slight heaving of his chest and the quivering of his raw hands he might just as well have been dead. The strand of wire had sunk deep into his mouth, cutting through his cheeks to the back of his jaw, almost splitting his head in two. Men pulled him away as gently as they could but flesh from his jaw and cheeks slipped away and was left dangling on the wire. I watched from a distance as he was placed on a stretcher and rushed back along the trench. He was dead before they got him to the Company Aid Post."

This is war at its barbarous, unglamorous reality. When John Hollands first described the soldier's burning in The Dead The Dying And The Damned in 1956, his publishers used it in an advert for the book in The Bookseller. Asinine, an association of women of the time took this to be a glorification of war – instead of its intended actual opposite – and called for the book to be banned. As is the perverse way of these things, the consequent publicity caused the book's huge sales.

In our times now, when grotesque images of war are hourly screened on rolling news TV and we are injured to them, it is doubtful that any ban the book brigade will screech up again. It is doubtful too that books like these will cause enough of us to come to the glaringly-obvious conclusion – ban war.

But on the off chance that it could happen, that one day the right person of power might learn from these books, John Holland keeps soldiering on in his commendable anti-war effort.

"It damn well needs to be said," he noted, and if only for that, for writing it, John Hollands deserves the Military Cross which he received for his bravery in Korea.

“ John's description of Korea is Kafkaesque, a bleak, grey-muddled hell that was so cold in winter that men froze in their dug-out lines just as generations before them did at Ypres' ”

ALTHOUGH now living in Corby, Northamptonshire, Nick Findlay is originally from Devon and is part of Honiton-based Project Zenz, a group supporting charity Rays of Sunshine by participating in the 2,000-mile Roadhog Charity Drive 2014 across Europe.

Project Zenz, made up of 22-year-old Nick and friends Matt Hemmings and Steve Mingo, hope to raise sponsorship by posting amusing videos to the internet during their journey.

Nick studied at Exmouth College and now works in technical support for Tesco.

● TELL us about about th Project Zenz roadtrip?

We won't know the route until day one of the trip and we will have challenges to complete along the way. We are hoping to raise a minimum of a £1,000 for Rays of Sunshine, which grants wishes for terminally-ill children in the UK. It takes place next May Bank Holiday weekend and the entire project will be documented on the website.

● HOW did the idea for the road trip come about?

seconds

● WHAT does your role with Project Zenz entail?

I will be co-driver and also a fundraiser.

● DO you have any fundraisers coming up?

Steve, another member of the Project, has a couple of ideas planned but is keeping them as a surprise for now until the details are ironed out. I hope to be around Honiton sometime in October where we hope to raise some money in and around the town through various events.

● WHAT are you most looking forward to about the road trip?

The ridiculous challenges we'll end up doing and the driving, I love driving. Seeing Europe should be quite cool and knowing that what we are doing is benefiting the children back in the UK. I also really hope I get an opportunity to drive on the world famous Autobahn.

● WHAT are you most worried about or not looking forward to?

I'm really worried about not raising enough money and the entire project falling through as a result, especially as we'd like to do our best to help the charity and uphold the promises we've made to them. I'm also worried about the car breaking down in the middle of nowhere, that would be pretty bad!

● WHAT What are your hobbies?

I love driving, computers and being with my friends.

● WHAT do you like about the local area?

I love the Devon scenery, the roads, the little villages and I also love the coast.

● WHAT do you think is missing from the local area?

Me!

● WHAT would you do if you won the Lottery?

I would buy a villa in the south of Spain, buy my friends new cars and get us all to do a big Project Zenz style road trip down to the villa and donate some money to charity at the same time.

● WHERE'S your ideal holiday destination?

I'd like to drive Route 66 in the USA one day because to me that is one of the world's ultimate driving experiences, it's on my bucket list of things to do.

For more details on Project Zenz visit www.projectzenz.co.uk

Milford & Dormor

S O L I C I T O R S

Milford & Dormor, West Country Solicitors, with offices in Axminster, Seaton, Chard and Ilminster has secured membership to the Law Society's Conveyancing Quality Scheme – the mark of excellence for the home buying and selling process.

Bill Bennett, senior partner said, "The increase in property transactions since securing this prestigious quality mark has been substantial". Milford & Dormor underwent rigorous assessment by the Law Society in order to secure CQS status, which marks the Firm out as meeting high standards in residential conveyancing.

Law Society former President John Wotton said that the Law Society introduced CQS to promote high standards in the home buying procedure, "CQS improves efficiency with common, consistent standards and service levels and enables consumers to recognise practices that provide a quality residential conveyancing service. Buying a home is one of the largest purchases anyone will make in their lifetime, so it is essential that it is done to the highest standard by a solicitor. There are many different conveyancing service providers out there, making it difficult for home buyers to identify those which can ensure a safe and efficient level of service."

Dee Fazio, the control officer for the scheme said, "Milford & Dormor is delighted to have secured CQS status. It is a recognition of the high standards we provide to our residential property clients and is a signal to future home buyers of the excellent service level we provide at what is often a stressful time for many people. The overall beneficiaries will be clients who use Milford & Dormor when buying a home.

They will receive a reliable, efficient service as recognised by the CQS standard."

The scheme requires practices to undergo a strict assessment, compulsory training, self-reporting, random audits and annual reviews in order to maintain CQS status. It is open only to members of the Law Society who meet the demanding standards set by the scheme and has the support of the Council of Mortgage Lenders, the Building Societies Association, Legal Ombudsman and the Association of British Insurers.

With NIGEL SPELLER

FATHER Michael Koppell RC Priest at Axminster writes: "On September 3rd we celebrate the life and work of a man who played a key role in the history of our country: St Gregory the Great, Pope from 590 to 604.

"There's a story that Gregory saw some young men for sale as slaves in Rome. On enquiring about them and being told they were Angles, he was heard to exclaim that they were 'not Angles but angels'. And he resolved to liberate them and send missionaries to their homeland.

"So it was that St Augustine and his companions set out from Rome to make the long and hazardous journey to a far country. Augustine eventually succeeded in establishing himself at Canterbury and the rest, as they say, is history St Augustine and his friends weren't the first Christians in England by any means but their mission was to be of decisive historical importance, which is why St Gregory the Great is known as 'the Apostle of the English' and is celebrated on September 3rd."

Those who follow the popular BBC television programme "Antiques Roadshow", will be interested to know that on Thursday, September 12th it takes place at Exeter Cathedral from 9.30am to 4.30pm - enquiries 01392 255573.

BBC Radio reports that since moving Radio 2's "Sunday Half Hour" from 8.30pm to 6am, audiences have more than doubled previous figures to 480,000.

In the West Country, The Devon Historic Churches Trust reminds us that The Open Churches Day 2013 will take place on Saturday, September 14th when our churches and chapels are encouraged to hold events which will generate funds. Particulars have been sent out but more information is on their website following - www.devonhistoricchurches.co.uk

As the Exeter Diocese Good News becomes more interesting every month, sadly across the Diocesan boundary, the Sarum Link also monthly with 30,000 copies is giving way to a new A4 publication to be used as pewsheets, magazine insert or online.

Four historic Devon churches have become local leaders in launching downloadable audio guides that play Apple and Android smart phones. Narration is by local clergy and parishioners and is designed to bring history and architecture together. So far, four churches in West Devon have produced their own audio guides. What about the east?

As reported earlier, Exeter Diocese now awaits the selection of both a Diocesan Bishop for the whole Diocese and a Suffragan (who is chosen by the next Bishop of Exeter) to serve in the west as Bishop of Plymouth after the departure of Bishop John at the end of September, after nine years in Devon. In the meantime the Bishop of Crediton cares for Devon, helped by active retired bishops who now live in the county.

From September 19th to 21st, Exeter Cathedral Players present "Ring Around the Moon" at 7.30pm with local talent - tickets nightly bookable at 01392 285983.

The good old days... It falls to us to remind politicians to take action to prevent conflict

FROM a pile of hoarded magazines and newspapers I've unearthed one that is exactly 40 years old: The Times of Tuesday, September 4th 1973. Edward Heath is Prime Minister, the TUC has just expelled 20 unions, IRA factions have clashed in Belfast's Crumlin Road prison, Libya will no longer accept US dollars in payment for oil and the Duke of Edinburgh has had "exceptionally warm" talks with Soviet president Podgorny in Moscow.

The President of the British Veterinary Association has expressed fear and "the greatest horror" that, if a channel tunnel from France is built, it will allow rabies into Britain. He says: "The proposal is something that must cause alarm to all wildlife conservationists, the farming community, pet owners and vets in this country, as well as creating new hazards for the population." He needn't have worried...

An outbreak of cholera in Italy is affecting that country's tourism, although Brits are proving to be the bravest (or most foolhardy?) at ignoring the risks. Cholera apart, a bargain week in an Italian villa in September costs £39.50 including "BEA jet from Heathrow". Or you can take a "luxury jet" to the US or Canada from £45 return.

Closer to home, estate agents Gribble Booth & Taylor have an elegant and spacious detached 6-bedroom Georgian house available in Tiverton at £30,500; a furnished four-bedroom detached house in Midhurst can be rented for £25 weekly; and a Mr Rex Hammond of

Tunbridge Wells writes that 1973 is a bumper year for blackberries: "I have never before seen them in such plump and succulent abundance, an obvious and inviting target for the cost-conscious housewife."

A new guide published by the Assistant Masters' Association advises male teachers how to behave towards female pupils at senior school: "Be brisk and rather distant, kind but scrupulously fair, with girls who find you attractive... Never allow yourself to be closeted alone with a female pupil... And should a young teacher find some girl pupils, little younger than himself, attractive, all we can say is that you should look for pebbles on safer beaches."

In sport, Billie Jean King has pulled out of the "United States tennis championships" where temperatures have been consistently in the 90s, while a certain Susan Barker of Paignton has beaten Joanna Durie (the British under-14 champion) in the British junior tennis championships in Bristol. Miss Barker apparently has "an all-round range probably unmatched in junior tennis" and "a championship look". Well done Sue!

And, guess what? The weather in the South West is mostly cloudy, with rain at times and bright patches!

JANICE BOOTH,
Castle Hill, Seaton

Stockland Fair raises £7,300

A TOTAL of £7,300 was raised at this year's Stockland Fair despite the cool weather and awards went to: Stockland Academy PTFA (for pop-up marquees/gazebos), Stockland & Yarcombe Pre-School (towards the cost of new loos), Stockland Victory Hall (internal improvements), Yarcombe & Stockland Cricket Club (towards the cost of a new mower) and Devon Air Ambulance Trust.

lance Trust.

In addition, funds have been allocated towards the cost of the village defibrillator, if funding needed.

Thank you again for your excellent coverage of the event.

ADVERTISER'S ANNOUNCEMENT

You can solve increased energy prices

THE continuing increase in energy prices is a problem you CAN do something about.

Installing a Solar PV system will cut your electricity bills and generate an income via the "Feed in Tariff" scheme. The electricity you generate is then FREE for you to use.

Evergreen Energy is based in Lyme Regis and pride ourselves on our excellent customer service and growing reputation, (many customers are happy to provide references). We are NICEIC registered electrical contractors, members of Dorset Trading Standards 'Buy with Confidence' scheme, as well as being MCS and Greendeal approved installers.

Evergreen only use quality components and the best installation techniques — our systems come with a ten year warranty on materials and workmanship.

Call or email to arrange a no obligation site survey. An engineer (not a salesman) will call and assess your needs and the suitability of your property. You will be given an explanation as to how the system works and how you would benefit. A system proposal and quotation would then be sent to you with one follow up phone call a couple of days later — that's it, no pressure selling.

As qualified electricians we do everything from rewires to smaller electrical jobs, as well as PAT testing and electrical inspection and testing. We can also offer advice on energy saving products such as voltage optimisers and LED low energy lighting.

I HAD a letter on behalf of the Prime Minister stating "the threat from weapons of mass destruction is current and serious" and "they would be ready within 45 minutes of an order to use them".

This, of course, was over 10 years ago when the Prime Minister, Tony Blair, assured Parliament: "I have absolutely no doubt at all about the existence of weapons of mass destruction." (April 28th, 2003).

It proved to be a tissue of misinformation and downright lies as did the promises to work through the UN. Does history repeat itself? Hitler could have usefully pondered this before attacking Russia. Barack Obama and David Cameron should certainly consider the lessons of recent history before embarking on yet enough war, because that it what a bombing raid on Syria would be.

G.W. Hegel wrote in 1830 "What experience and history teach is this - that nations and governments have never learned anything from history, or acted upon any lessons they may have drawn from it".

Since it is we, the people, who pay the price for such political ignorance it falls to us to remind the the politicians and and take action to prevent war.

TONY SIMPSON,
Honiton

COLYTON FOOTBALL CLUB

A FORMER vicar in Colyton founded the club, originally Colyton Working Men's Football Club. The Reverend G E F Molyneux staged the meeting at the parish's former Sunday School and the team played its first league game on Saturday, September 3rd 1910 in The Perry Street & District Football League. The record books will show that it was not the most auspicious of starts, finishing bottom of the league with a record of:

Obviously things improved and slowly but surely Colyton established themselves as a very well respected footballing side. The first few seasons saw home games being played out of the town in the village of Umborne. The club then moved to a pitch called 'Sheep's Nose' which was on top of Mount Hill. The home ground moved again to Hillhead, to Bolt Field, near the Railway Station. After World War 2, Colyton settled at the long standing home of Chantry Bridge. The farmer who owned the field lived by the pitch and he was very keen on football and watched every home game. He charged an annual rent of £10 per season with a bonus that he reduced the rent every time the club won a home game. The club relocated to the Peace Memorial Playing Fields for the start of the 2008-09 season, leaving many clubs envious of the pitches and open spaces available to Colyton.

The 1920's were a very successful time for the club, having attracted top players, many of them teachers from the Grammar School. This success was highlighted in 1925 when the club won the prestigious Morrison Bell Cup, an amazing feat at the time for a small 'village' team. The opponents in the final were Budleigh Salterton and the game ended as a draw. The replay was held at Honiton Town, with Colyton winning 1-0. The victorious team returned to Colyton by train, where they were met by the town's brass band and then they paraded the cup through the lanes to a reception in the Town Hall, which was attended by virtually all inhabitants of the town.

The 1950's saw Colyton leave Perry Street football and join the ranks of the Exeter & District League, with a Youth Team emerging around the same time. They soon became a real force in local football with notable players such as Harold Gooding, Dennis Parr and Ken Clifford Snr leading the way.

Colyton saw a barren run between 1966 and 1978, with no trophies won. However, this changed in the 1978-79 season with the club winning a historic treble under the management of Eric Pomeroy. Colyton helped themselves to the Intermediate 1 East Division title, the Devon Intermediate Cup and the Grandisson Cup.

Over the seasons Colyton have won many cups and league titles, but have always had their feet on the ground as a community club which supports the local community and also values the support it receives from the community. There have been many generous sponsors who have backed the club over the seasons, and the club are extremely grateful for all the donations and help it has received.

TCAS Ltd Accountants are the current first team sponsor and away kit sponsor, and Mole Avon are sponsor of the reserve team. Both companies have signed up to very generous sponsorship agreements and the club are very appreciative of their support.

Colyton were relegated from Devon & Exeter Division 1 last season and will take their place in Division 2 this time around, whilst the Reserves remain in Division 8. The club has over forty players signed on for the forthcoming season, including several young players who are now eligible to play senior football. Colyton are also delighted to welcome back Richard Tratt and Ed Busby to the club.

Matthew Orsman and David Long are running the 1st and 2nd teams respectively and are always looking out for new players. Anyone is free to turn up to a training session, which take place on Tuesday's and Thursday's at The Peace Memorial Playing Fields from 19:00. Matthew can be contacted on 07834 243634 and David on 07921 394612.

All the signs point to a very positive future for Colyton Football Club: a great group of young players coming through the ranks, a hard working committee, a very loyal fan base, a sound financial footing and a real togetherness amongst the current squad.

Matthew Orsman

(1st XI Manager)

How long have you been associated with Colyton FC? and in what capacities?

If you include the youth team, I've been involved with Colyton football club for the best part of 30 years. As player, manager, groundsman and committee member I've helped out where I can.

Who have been the best three players you've seen play in the red shirts of Colyton FC?

It's difficult to compare generations, but having occasionally played with Andy Widger I think he's probably the best player, great to have him helping with training as well this season. Our current centre forward Callum Somers would certainly have to be in the top 3, he's a great asset to our team; let's hope he can get us 20 plus goals this season. Another player worth a mention is our current reserve team manager, Dave Long. In his prime Dave had the footballing work ethic of a Jan Molby combined with a Carlton Palmer like touch.

Do any particular games or incidents involving 'The Tanners' stick in your memory?

There have been so many incidents over the years; it's difficult to think of a printable one! A game played by the reserve team a few years ago springs to mind. Colyton were away to Tedburn and 3-0 down at half time. We ended up winning 3-6 with James Tucker scoring all the goals - so I subbed him with 10 minutes to go because I didn't want it going to his head, he still claims he would have had 8 had I kept him on!!

How would you improve facilities at your Peace Memorial Ground home?

Our facilities are great and they will improve when the groundsman's shed's built. In the long term it would be an advantage to the club if there was a flood lit all-weather training pitch.

What are your hopes for the new season in the Devon & Exeter League?

After relegation from Division 1 last season I think a good season would see us finish in the top half of Division 2 this year.

Name some of your young players that we should look out for in the future.

We have been lucky this season because a few new youngsters have arrived to boost the reserves and I am sure some of them will eventually play regularly for the first team. George Richards, Danny Searle and Matt Berry in particular have a lot of potential.

The ultimate leisure guide for Devon

A man and a woman are captured in a joyful dance pose against a plain, light-colored background. The man, on the left, is wearing a black long-sleeved shirt and dark trousers. He has a wide, enthusiastic smile and his eyes are looking towards the camera. His arms are extended, with his hands open and fingers slightly curled. The woman, on the right, is wearing a dark blue long-sleeved top and light blue jeans. She has short, reddish-brown hair and is laughing heartily with her mouth wide open and eyes closed. Her right arm is raised with a clenched fist, and her left arm is extended outwards. The overall mood is one of pure happiness and celebration.

Kiki Dee and Carmelo Luggeri to play Budleigh gig

Andy Fairweather Low, Martin Barre and The Albion Band also set to play special season of music
See page 24

Kiki Dee, Andy Fairweather Low, Martin Barre and The Albion Band all set for Budleigh!

An exciting and varied programme of musical events at Budleigh's Public Hall this autumn offers something for all tastes.

WITH one of the loveliest voices in popular music, Kiki Dee, accompanied by guitar virtuoso Carmelo Luggeri, performs an eclectic selection of favourite covers, recent album tracks plus the familiar hits such as Amoureuse, I've got the music in me, Star and Don't go breakin' my heart, on Saturday, October 5th in Budleigh Salterton.

On Sunday, October 27th founder member of Cardiff-based Amen Corner, Andy Fairweather Low and his band the Low Riders, perform hits from the band's back catalogue such as Bend Me, Shape Me, High in the Sky, and (If Paradise is) half as nice, songs from his A&M period such as Reggae Tune, La Booga Rooga and the pop classic, Wide-eyed and legless, the big Christmas hit of 1975, plus some favourite blues, gospel, rock and country classics. A busy musician, Andy plays with Bill Wyman's Rhythm Kings, performing with them at this year's Glastonbury Festival. He also tours regularly with Eric Clapton.

Recently he has been recording background guitar/vocals for compatriot Tom Jones, toured France with Procul Harum keyboard-man Gary Brooker and tours Japan in September.

On Sunday, November 10th guitar legend Martin Barre brings his 6-piece band to the venue.

Lead guitar with Jethro Tull for 44 years, Martin's distinctive playing has been a major factor in their long and successful career, which has produced album sales exceeding 60 million units worldwide.

Martin's playing on Aqualung earned him many plaudits while his work on the album Crest of a Knave earned him a Grammy in 1988.

Martin has worked with many artists including Paul McCartney, Phil Collins, Gary Moore, Jo Bonamassa and Mark Knopfler, but with Tull currently on sabbatical, Martin's band plays a mix of his favourite blues and rock standards, seasoned with classic tracks from the Tull catalogue - some not performed for many years.

Lastly, on Sunday, December 15th, The Albion Christmas Band, comprising Fairport Convention originals Ashley Hutchings (bass/vocals) and Simon Nicol (guitar/vocals) teamed with the lovely Kellie While (guitar/vocals) and Simon Care (melodeon/vocals/egg-dance) bring their seasonal show of songs, tunes, readings and yuletide merriment.

Kiki Dee and Carmelo Luggeri

A Bar and food is available at all the above gigs.

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL SUMMER FOR TOWN BAND

'AULD Lang Syne' echoed across Marine Parade last week, marking the end of another very successful season of summer concerts for Lyme Regis Town Band, which this year had begun on June 18th.

With the weather greatly improved on last year, the band regularly entertained large and appreciative crowds. Just one Tuesday concert was cancelled because of rain, leaving a total of seventeen performances. As a result of the good weather, collections have been very encouraging and will help provide the band with financial security through the winter months.

Once again, a popular feature was the regular children's spot, when youngsters were invited to come forward and join the band to play a range of percussion instruments.

Several players on holiday in Lyme Regis joined the band for their regular concerts. They included brothers David and Richard Thomas and young German trombonist Conrad Groezinger. Another holidaymaker was Mark Peacock, Associate Conductor of the famous Fairey Band, who conducted the band in a cameo appearance.

Lyme Regis resident Nigel Ball, a regular concert attendee, stepped forward to express the thanks of not only those present, but of the people of Lyme Regis, who appreciated the important role the band played in the local community. The audience then linked arms for the singing of 'Auld Lang Syne', an appropriate close to another successful season.

Musical Director John Powell expressed thanks to all who had supported the band throughout the summer and presented thank-you gifts to the regular collectors. In thanking the audience for their support, he commented, "This has been a memorable summer season for us. We now return to the practice room and begin preparation for our Christmas Concert on Friday, December 13th".

NEW MASH FUSION PERFORMANCE WORKSHOPS!

MASH Fusion was devised early in 2013 by Sara Perry creator of Confidence'.

It is a new theatre arts programme suitable for adults and children and all levels of ability. Starting this September with some taster sessions these workshops aim to bring fun, inspiration and new skills to anyone interested in the theatre arts, encouraging individuals to think 'outside the box', reach new limits and be the best they can.

Mash fusion fuses and brings together different elements of the arts (song & dance) in order to create musical com-plifications of diverse styles and rhythms.

I am always creating and coming up with new ideas and Mash Fusion' was a perfect outlet when satisfying my creative drive.

Unlike some I embrace change and am constantly adapting and like to keep things fresh, being one of the reasons why I like to produce shows over a smaller amount of time as it prevents things from becoming stagnant. Yes there can be an increase in stress but even that can be positive if focused constructively.

I find that my mind is constantly working overtime and for those who know me well they understand to always expect the unexpected.

I dream of Dali' was written and produced in 6 weeks and actual rehearsal time was only 3 days in total. This proved to be one of the most intense and exciting projects I have ever done. I love to mix up melodies and create something that will stand out from the crowd and 'I dream of Dali' certainly did that!

The first taster sessions at £5.00 each are on the 11th & 26th September and booking is essential as places will be limited so if you keen to have a go contact Sara 01297 23474 or download an application forms at www.actingwithconfidence.co.uk.

Just an old WarHorse

SINCE the early seventies, Bob Fox has lovingly developed his skills in the performance of folk song in all its various forms. He has toured extensively throughout the UK, Europe, USA, Australia and New Zealand, working mostly solo, producing beautifully crafted arrangements for voice and guitar, as well as collaborating with many top musicians in various projects over the years, always creating music and recordings of the finest quality, rewarded by accolades and awards in abundance.

In 2011 he was invited to play the role of 'Songman' in the award winning National Theatre production of WarHorse in London's West End where he has consistently turned out superb performances singing and playing the melodeon, a brand new challenge for him, as the character appears throughout the play as a commentator and driving force.

In the Spring of 2013 Bob will return to the concert stage with some of the songs from WarHorse, some new material from the BBC Radio Ballads and favourites from his vast repertoire of traditional and contemporary songs. Expect an eclectic mix of thought provoking storytelling, with a bit of audience participation and witty banter thrown in for good measure.

Bob Fox will perform at Colyford Memorial Hall on Sunday, September 22nd at 7pm. Tickets are available from Colyford Post Office, and on 01297 553710.

FOLK LEGEND | Bob Fox

“AS soon as I heard him sing I realised that Bob Fox must have one of the best voices in England, he is an artist of great ability and integrity.”

New Dacia Duster – more Duster than ever

NEW Dacia Duster, presented at the forthcoming Frankfurt Motor Show, has been upgraded for European left hand drive markets. Retaining the design features largely responsible for its success, the new model sports more emphatic 4x4 design cues.

Emphatic 4x4 styling

The front end has been upgraded, with a redesigned grille, adorned by two chrome-plated strips and housing a new air intake and new double-optic headlights with daytime running lights.

The upgrades underscore the car's on-road stance and robust, "go-anywhere" character.

"We built on the appeal of the original model and its proportions. Identity components such as the grille have been modernised. We have also strengthened the 4x4 cues of the vehicle, while keeping all its useful features. New Duster gets an even stronger character while retaining its initial DNA."

David Durand, Head of Styling for the Entry range.

New roof bars with slatted supports underline the car's SUV character, while new 16-inch "Dark Metal" alloy wheels and Mud and Snow tyres revitalise the profile of New Dacia Duster.

At the back, new lights echo the styling cues of the front end, notably though the use of chrome. A chrome-plated tail pipe and new badging round out the exterior styling changes and further boost the car's personality.

Visit www.media.renault.com on 9th September to find out all about New Duster

THE recent Captain's Trophy attracted a field of 38 members and produced a very close finish.

Two players finished on 36 points with the winner Tony Strong (9) edging it on countback from Mick Tomes (16) who had to settle for 2nd spot.

Three players scored 35 points and third place, again on countback, went to Chris Jowett (15) with Peter Motson (28) and Norman Bowles (23) the players to miss out on the prizes.

There were two x 2s, from Bryan Dale and Nick Stanton.

Earlier in the week the team travelled to Long Sutton where the home team gained revenge for the defeated at Axe Cliff in March.

The one ray of sunshine on an otherwise miserable day was the prize for nearest the pin in two on the par 4, 14th which was won by Axe Cliff's Gilbert Cox, for which he won a sleeve of Srixons.

The final two games on Sunday were for the club championship, the ladies was contested by Maria Johnson and Chris McDonald.

The final score, after a nail-biting match, was 21 shots to 19 - Maria Johnson winning by just two shots.

The mens championship was saw Ron Rowley go down by 15-21 against and Phil Crichard. Following a round trip of 90 miles, Seaton A team returned home 41-29 victors against North Tawton B in the Over 60s Triples League.

The top triple was; Peter Newton, Ron Rowley and Les Tooze.

Seaton A remain unbeaten this season having strung together 17 consecutive victories with the final league game due to be played tomorrow (September 4th) at home to Ottery St Mary "A".

Following a two-rink defeat to leaders Chardstock A the previous week, Seaton Over 60s B dropped to third place, having held second for most of the league programme. This week they won at home against Ottery 'B', winning by a large margin, 33-7, on one rink (E.Backhouse, B.Scull and D.Yardley) but narrowly losing on the other. Would the six points be enough to overtake Chagford?

In the event it was, as Chagford lost away at Phear Park.

Seaton B regained second place and won promotion for the second time in three years.

running round-up

Honiton gearing up for Cotleigh Canters run

HONITON RC

with Judy Davey

THE Lustleigh 10k takes place on Dartmoor during the Lustleigh Show which this year was attended by BBC Radio Devon.

A hot Bank Holiday Monday saw the 131 runners leave the show-ground at midday for the tough 10k multi terrain trek around Lustleigh Cleave and Dartmoor.

Howard Bidmead was the sole Honiton runner. He was having a great run until 9k when he slipped on a boulder and badly sprained his ankle.

However, Howard still finished 39th overall in a time of 49m 52s. The winner was Tony Hatchard from Exeter Harriers in 38.21.

On the same day, three Honiton runners took part in the Quarryman's Trail based at Bampton and forming part of Bampton Village Fayre.

This is a fairly tough 10k multi-terrain run which starts with a hill which goes on for the best part of two miles. This does mean that there is a fantastic road descent to the finish.

Steve Davey was first in for Honiton in a time of 48:35 winning a 'coffin dodger' category prize!

Steve's wife, Judy was next back finishing in 53:31 and coming 2nd lady overall.

John Burgess was the other Honiton runner finishing about 2½ minutes behind Judy and disappointingly for him, slower than last year.

Usually the course has plenty of mud but this year the course was dry which should have led to faster times. This is a very low key and friendly event with just 33 runners taking part.

Honiton Running Club's very own Cotleigh Canters will take place on Sunday, September 22nd. The headquarters is at Cotleigh Village Hall with the first runners setting off at 10.30am.

If you are fairly new to running and would like to work towards a challenge, then the 5k would be ideal.

For the slightly more adventurous, there is the 10k and there is also a 3k fun run which is mainly for children aged nine and over although younger children can run with an adult.

This is an opportunity for everyone, irrespective of running ability.

For further information and to download an entry form for the races, visit www.honitonrc.com. You can also enter on the day if numbers allow.

Ax celebrate double Victory seals promotion for 2nd XI

ALREADY-PROMOTED Axminster 1st XI rounded off an excellent campaign with a disappointing 63-run reverse in a low-scoring encounter at Dartington & Totnes on Saturday.

Robbie Prior took 3 for 25 as the hosts were held to 141 for 9.

But this proved to be more than enough as the 10-man Carpetmen were shot out for just 78 with nobody reaching 25.

Elsewhere, Ax 2nds completed a promotion double for the club by beating neighbours Uplyme & Lyme Regis 2nds by 43 runs at Cloakham Lawns.

Mark Enticott clipped an unbeaten 46 as Axminster posted 204 for 6 and then dismissed the visitors for 161 (D.Larcombe 4-8, D.Fuz-zard 5-25).

for Seaton 1st XI (117-5) who, after challenging for promotion in Division D (east) all season, just missed out despite winning by five wickets at Countess Wear 116 in their last game.

Seaton 2nds finished as runners-up to Axminster after Chris Aplin scored a superb 118 and Stuart Wright 59 in a total of 288 for 5 against Countess Wear.

The visitors were then blasted out for 125 with Ollie Aplin (3 for 29) and K. Sutton (3 for 4) both in-form with the ball.

Sadly, Seaton 3rds once again failed to raise a side for their trip to Exeter Civil Service and were duly docked another 10 points.

Kilmington's season ended on a low note with defeats for both teams.

Ralph Cook hit 66 but the 1sts (230-8) went down by three wickets against Yarcombe (233-7; I.Wickramaratne 4-43, H.Cook 3-48).

The 2nds were thrashed by eight wickets by Feniton (106 -2) after being blasted out for just 105.

Chardstock brought the curtain down on their season in fine style scoring an impressive 319-7 with Robbie Hutchings top-scoring with 88.

Opponents Woodbury could only muster 264 and went down by 51 runs.

Over in the Somerset League Division 8S All Saints, already assured of a third place finish, banked 35 points but were denied a last day run-out when scheduled visitors Lydford failed to raise a team.

Teignmouth 2

SATURDAY, AUGUST 31ST

AXMINSTER Town hopes of a third successive South east Peninsula League Division One (west) were ultimately dashed by some slack defending on the half-hour of Saturday's match with Teignmouth Town.

All appeared to be going to plan for The Tigers after Dan Bailly had given them the lead in the 19th minute with his fifth goal of the season.

But a lack of concentration in the home back line saw the visitors capitalise twice in the space of 90 seconds and Ax were left pointless despite enjoying large periods of domination.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 31ST

SIDMOUTH Town paid the penalty for failing to convert a host of good chances as they went down 4-0 against Newton Abbot Spurs at Manstone Road.

A debatable penalty decision midway through the first period saw Gareth Davis edge the Spurs ahead.

Davis then added a second of the stroke of half-time.

The chances came thick and fast for the hosts after the turnaround; Aaron Doble struck the crossbar, Dan Norman the post and then headed wide when well placed.

Ben Ede then brought a good tip-over out of the visiting gloveman.

But a breakaway goal led the awrd of another penalty – no complaints about this one – and Davis had his hat-trick to clinch the win.

Steve Mardell added a fourth late-on.

Axe Valley Runners out in force all over the region

GRAHAM and Diane Newton lined up with 500 other runners for the start of the Torbay Regatta 10k road run on Sunday, August 25th.

This was a fast course, starting at the Pavilion at Torquay and running over to Paignton, twice around the green and back to Torquay.

The heat made the going hard but Graham managed to get back in 43:15, coming 86th overall, 2nd over 60 male vet and taking 36 seconds off his PB.

Diane, not to be outdone, took nearly nine minutes off her PB, coming in 43:44 in 1:03:13.

Sue Venn completed the Battle of Sedgemoor 10K in 56:46, just a tad slower than when she last ran it six years ago.

On Wednesday Luke Reed travelled to Dorney Lake in Windsor near Slough to take part in the VOTWO Evening Triathlon series.

There were 270 finishers with Luke finishing 19th in a very strong field. His Split times were: 750m lake swim = 11.49. 20k flat 4 lap bike = 29.09. 5k flat road run = 18.47 giving him an overall time of 1:01.06, a PB for a Sprint Distance Triathlon.

On Bank Holiday Monday, three

Axe Valley Runners made the trip to the Lustleigh Show 10k on the east side of Dartmoor.

The race starts and finishes among a throng of visitors to the show and runs mostly along lanes and tracks whilst negotiating quite a few hills.

The race was won by Exeter Harrier Anthony Hatchard in 38.21. First AVR home was Eleanor Wood in exactly the same time as last year 49.19! She was 5th Lady overall and first vet 55, 38th out of 132 runners.

Next in was Paul Tolchard finishing 93rd in 59.42, followed by Rick Wood, 100th in his slowest ever 10k time of 65.15.

AVR's team of Matt, Alex, Garry, Amy, Welsh Paul and Stephen & Alan Morbey were one of only two teams to compete in the Dorset Coast Path Relay on Saturday.

The route began in Lyme Regis followed the coast path to West Bexington then took the inland South Dorset Ridgeway (an official alternative route for the South West Coast Path to avoid Weymouth).

The coastal path was regained at Osmington Mills and the route finished by the ferry at the end of Stud-land Beach. On a cracking day for running through the best scenery in Dorset, the team completed the hilly 65 miles in 9 hours 50 minutes, half an hour down on two years ago (but with two runners fewer).

The overall winners were Wessex Orienteers in 8:14:55 but there were also three other mini competitions within the event. AVR won the handicap trophy (in which extra time is assigned for each member of the team) since the other team had 30-odd runners.

Matt and Alex won King of the Mountains for the leg over Golden Cap from St Gabriel's to Seaton in 13:51. We didn't win the King of the Coast section from St Aldhelm's Head since Alex had turned an ankle on the previous leg and Matt was feeling the effects of the distance run.

Running every leg in pairs does make it harder to be competitive but results in a much nicer day's running! The Wessex team's captain had run less than five miles compared with most of the AVR's doing between 20 and 35!

The team were on about 9:15 pace for the first half but the switch-back either side of Lulworth Cove took its toll to the extent that the last couple of miles of flat, firm, sandy beach reduced even the fastest of their runners to nine minute miling from their previous 6.5-7.5 pace. But it was worth it for an amazing day's running!

The 10.4 mile Oke Croak race starts from Simmons park in Okehampton, runs out onto the moor and up to Oke Tor then self-navigating on to Yes Tor followed by a long descent back to the park.

Robin Carter ran very well to finish 1st lady, 10th overall in 1:41:20.
